Fulcrum Group's Virtual Lunch & Learn 3 Pillars of Your Remote Workplace

“What's your Go To for ordering out lunch? Mine's Queso.” – David Johnson aka Señor Queso

The Covid-19 pandemic caused small businesses and organizations across DFW to quickly shift to remote working scenarios. Most weren't ready but have managed to survive these turbulent times.

Less than a year later, it is clear that many small businesses haven't addressed the various concerns around managing remote workers – namely, cybersecurity threats, effective management, and culture.

Join us for a discussion on how to address these concerns around managing remote workers.

Attendees will receive lunch on us via DoorDash, and also receive great insight on managing remote workers!

Our virtual meeting via Microsoft Teams will take place
